

Selective Licence Conditions for Privately Rented Properties

Indicates a statutory condition as prescribed by the Housing Act 2004*

A. Gas, Electrical and Fire Safety

Gas Safety

1. Where gas is supplied to the house, the licence holder shall ensure that all gas installations and appliances are in safe condition at all times and that an annual gas safety check is carried out by a Gas Safe registered engineer. The licence holder shall provide a copy to all tenants/occupiers at the beginning of their tenancy, and keep a written record that it has been provided. *
2. The licence holder shall produce the gas safety certificate issued in respect of the house within the previous 12 months for inspection within 7 days of the council's demand. *

Details of Gas Safe engineers can be found at www.gassaferegister.co.uk

Electrical Safety

3. The licence holder shall ensure that every electrical installation in the housing is in proper working order and safe for continued use. *
4. The licence holder shall supply the authority, on demand, with a declaration by them as to the safety of such installations. *

Safety of Electrical Appliances

5. The licence holder shall ensure that electrical appliances made available in the house by them are kept in a safe condition and proper working order at all times. *
6. The licence holder shall ensure a record of visual inspection of such appliances is maintained and shall submit this record to the council within 7 days of the council's demand.
7. Within 7 days of the council's demand, the licence holder shall supply a declaration as to the safety of electrical appliances made available by him at the house. *

Smoke Alarms/Fire Detection Systems

8. The licence holder shall ensure that at all times a suitable fire detection and alarm system is installed in the house and is maintained in proper working order. As a minimum, there must be a smoke alarm installed on each storey of the house on which there is a room used wholly or partly as living accommodation. For the purposes of this paragraph, a bathroom or lavatory is to be treated as a room used as living accommodation. *

9. The licence holder shall supply a declaration as to the condition and position of any smoke alarms/detectors in the property within 7 days of the council's demand. *

Furniture and Furnishings (Fire Safety)

10. The licence holder shall ensure that the furniture made available by them at the house is kept in a safe condition at all times. *
11. The licence holder shall supply a declaration as to the safety of the furniture made available by him at the house within 7 days of the council's demand. *

Carbon Monoxide Alarms

12. The licence holder shall ensure that a carbon monoxide alarm is installed in any room in the house which is used wholly or partly as living accommodation and contains a fixed combustion appliance other than a gas cooker. Any such alarm must be kept in proper working order. For the purposes of this paragraph, a bathroom, lavatory, hall or landing are all treated as being a room used as living accommodation. *
13. The licence holder shall supply a declaration as to the condition and position of any carbon monoxide alarms in the property within 7 days of the council's demand. *

B. Property Management

14. The licence holder must ensure all reasonable and practical steps are taken to respond to repair and maintenance issues at their property and that any works to deal with repairs are undertaken within a reasonable period of time after they are notified, and within the timescales notified to occupiers under condition 22.
15. The licence holder must ensure that gardens, yards and other external areas are cleared of rubbish, debris and accumulations and are cleared between tenancies. All refuse and unwanted items are cleared from the house and disposed of in an appropriate manner before new tenants move in
16. The licence holder shall ensure the property is secure by complying with the requirements of paragraphs a) to f) below:
 - a) So far as reasonably possible, any emergency works necessary to protect the security of the property are undertaken within 24hrs of notification e.g. damage to windows/entrance points to the property.
 - b) The security provisions for the access to the property (locks, latches, deadbolts and entry systems etc.) are maintained in good working order at all times;
 - c) Where window locks are fitted, that keys are provided to the occupant(s) of the property;
 - d) Where a burglar alarm is fitted to the house, that the occupant(s) is (are) made aware of the code, how the alarm is operated and the circumstances under which the code for the alarm can be changed;
 - e) Where previous occupiers have not surrendered keys, arranging for a lock change to be undertaken, prior to new occupiers moving in;
 - f) Where alley gates are installed to the side or rear of the licensed property, taking responsibility for holding a key and making satisfactory arrangements for the occupiers' access;

Dealing with Rubbish:

17. The licence holder shall at the beginning of a tenancy, provide written information to the occupiers of the property indicating:
- What day refuse collections take place
 - What type of bins to use for household and recycling waste
 - Details of the council's bulky waste collection service
 - The occupier's responsibility to put bins out no earlier than 4pm on the day before collection and to return refuse containers within the boundary of the property by 8am the day after they are emptied
 - That occupiers should make arrangements for any extra rubbish that cannot fit in the bins to be collected and/or disposed of as soon as is reasonably possible and ensure that such rubbish, where possible, is stored at the rear of and within the boundary of the property until collection/disposal
 - The licence holder shall ensure so far as is reasonably possible, that the occupiers make arrangements for the collection of waste in accordance with these provisions and, when the property is unoccupied, adhere to these provisions him/herself.

Property Inspections

18. The licence holder must ensure that the tenant's right to quiet enjoyment of the property is respected. Where entry is required the licence holder must ensure that any notice requirements contained in the tenancy agreement are complied with. Where the tenancy agreement does not contain any such requirements, the licence holder must ensure that the tenant receives at least 24 hours written notice of intention to enter the property specifying the reason entry is required. The only exception when it would not be reasonable to give such notice and access is urgent, e.g. in an emergency.
19. The licence holder shall ensure that inspections of the property are carried out at least every six months to identify any problems relating to the condition and management of the property. The records of such inspections shall be kept for the duration of this licence. As a minimum requirement, the record must contain a log who carried out the inspection, date and time of inspection and issues for an action(s) taken. Copies of these must be provided within 7 days of the council's demand.

C. Tenancy Management

20. At the beginning of a new tenancy, the licence holder must provide the occupier(s) with written information, including contact details, explaining how they can make a complaint about the property and the arrangements in place to deal with emergency and other repairs. The contact and telephone number details should be applicable for contact between 9am – 5pm Monday to Friday and should also include out of hours contact details for use in emergencies. Any change in contact and/or telephone number details should be provided to occupiers within 24 hours of the changes being made. Copies of the written information provided to tenants must be provided within 7 days of the council's demand.

21. The licence holder shall indicate to the occupier(s) how they intend to respond to the complaint including a timescale for the steps they intend to take.
22. The licence holder shall respond to any complaint within a reasonable timescale. Copies of all correspondence relating to complaints shall be retained during the currency of the occupation and for 6 months thereafter and shall be provided to the council within 7 days of the council's demand.
23. The licence holder must provide the tenant with an information pack containing the following details:
 - a) A true copy of the licence to which these conditions apply.
 - b) A notice with the name, address, day time and emergency contact number of the licence holder or managing agent.
 - c) Where appropriate, true copies of the current gas, electrical safety and energy performance certificates.
 - d) The information required by conditions 18, 22 and 26.
24. The licence holder shall supply to the occupiers of the house a written statement of the terms on which they occupy it. This statement shall be provided within 7 days of the occupancy beginning and the licence holder shall supply a copy of the written statement within 7 days of the council's demand. *
25. The licence holder shall comply with all relevant landlord and tenant law and shall ensure that all legal processes are followed when requiring occupiers to leave. If a complaint of illegal eviction is made to the council, the licence holder shall provide information as to the steps taken to evict an occupant within 7 days of the council's demand.
26. The licence holder shall demand references for new occupiers before entering into any occupancy agreement with them or allowing them to occupy the premises. Copies of these references shall be kept for the duration of this licence and made available to the council within 7 days of the council's demand. *
27. Where a deposit is taken the licence holder must provide any tenant with the relevant information about the deposit scheme to which it relates and any other information required under section 213 of the Housing Act 2004. The information must be provided to the council within 7 days of the council's demand.

D. Tackling Anti-Social Behaviour

28. The licence holder shall ensure that all reasonable and practical steps are taken to prevent and respond to anti-social behaviour. These include written tenancy management arrangements to prevent or reduce anti-social behaviour by persons occupying or visiting the property. Copies of these must be provided to the Council within 7 days of the Council's demand. If the licence holder or manager / agent receive complaints of anti-social behaviour that concern the occupiers of, or visitors to the property or that result from their actions they must comply with requirements (a) to (i) below:
 - a) Any letters, relating to anti-social behaviour, sent or received by the licence holder, or agent of the licence holder, must be kept by the licence holder. True copies of the original document should be provided to the Council within 7 days on demand.

- b) Ensure that written notes are kept of any meetings or telephone conversations or investigations regarding anti-social behaviour.
- c) If a complaint is received, or anti-social behaviour is discovered, within 7 days the tenant must be informed of the allegations of anti-social behaviour in writing and of the consequence of its continuation.
- d) From the date of receipt of the complaint of anti-social behaviour, monitor any allegations of anti-social behaviour and take all necessary steps to establish if it is continuing.
- e) Where the anti-social behaviour is continuing after 14 days from receipt of the complaint, the licence holder, or his agent must, within 7 days visit the premises and give to the tenant, or leave at the property marked for their attention, a warning letter advising them of the possibility of eviction.
- f) Where the licence holder or his agent has reason to believe that the anti-social behaviour involves criminal activity the licence holder must ensure that the appropriate authorities (e.g. Police, Council etc.) are informed.
- g) If after 14 days of giving a warning letter the tenant has failed adequately to address the anti-social behaviour so that it is continuing, the licence holder must take appropriate formal steps under the tenancy agreement, whether to enforce its terms or to terminate it, including, where necessary, by taking legal proceedings against the occupier(s).
- h) Where the obligation under (g) has arisen, the licence holder must, within 7 days, provide to the Council in writing a plan setting out the steps he proposes to take, and the timescale for taking those steps, in order to resolve the problem.
- i) If the licence holder is invited to do so, they must attend a case conference or Multi-Agency Meeting arranged by the Council or Police (whether following the provision of a plan referred to at (h) above, or generally.)

There may be instances where anti-social behaviour occurs more than once, but not continuously and possibly several months apart. In such circumstances the licence holder would still be expected to take all reasonable and practical steps to ensure it is effectively dealt with, up to and including eviction.

E. Change of Details or Circumstances

29. The licence holder must inform the council within 21 days of any material change in circumstances including:
- a) Change of their address
 - b) Change of manager, management arrangements or ownership
 - c) Any changes to their, the manager's or any associate's circumstances which could affect their fit and proper person status i.e. any cautions or convictions for any offence involving fraud, dishonesty, violence, drugs, sexual offences (under Sexual Offences Act, schedule 3) discrimination or breach of housing or landlord/tenant law.
 - d) Any proposed changes to the layout of the house that would affect the licence or licence conditions.

F. Licence Holder Training

30. Where the licence holder has not attended relevant training in the previous 3 years, they must as a minimum attend suitable training on the law and legal requirements relating to managing privately rented housing within 12 months of the date the licence is issued. This requirement can be satisfied in one of the following ways:
- a) By attending training course or undertaking online training arranged and delivered by our accreditation partner DASH Services and submitting a certificate to the Council following this training. Visit www.dashservices.org.uk or call 01332 641111 to arrange this.
 - b) By completion of the accreditation training of the National Landlords Association (NLA) or Residential Landlords Association (RLA) or other equivalent recognised landlord accreditation body and submitting the pass certificates to the Council for confirmation.
 - c) By completion of other suitable training on the law and legal requirements relating to managing privately rented properties as provided by East Midlands Property Owners Ltd (EMPO) or other recognised landlord training subject to approval by the Council in advance and subject to submitting a pass certificate or similar document to the Council for confirmation.

G. Interpretation

31. Where reports, certificates, declarations or other documents are required to be produced or supplied to the Council, this shall mean sending by email (preferred method), post or delivering by hand, declaration to the Council's offices for the attention of the Public Protection Service.
32. Any reference to tenant or tenancy can also be interpreted to include occupancy by licence or other form of written agreement for the purposes of these conditions.

Advisory Notes

Where electrical works/certificates are required they shall be carried out by a competent person. For example a suitably qualified electrical contractor who is registered/a member of an approved scheme such as NICEIC, ECA, NAPIT etc. or registered to undertake electrical works in accordance with part P of the Building Regulations. Electrical contractors that are on a relevant competent person scheme can be found at www.competentperson.co.uk
